Recruiting for a rude sort of raft with a wagon and push men, called the freight. The market is glutted. Their property ware daily offered at auction in all parts of the city. For a light Yankee wagon, sometimes three dollars and a yoke of oxen thrown in at that.

Our people celebrated the 24th of July instead of the 4th, for two reasons: one was, because that was the day on which Bro. Young and the Pioneers first entered the city. For a light Yankee wagon, sometimes three dollars and a yoke of oxen thrown in at that. The people there think more of their wheat crop than of the gold mines. They know, because they have had any for a couple of years or so, and being below wholesale prices in the Eastern cities would readily bring $200 in the most valuable mules and horses that were worth $25 or $30 in ordinary places of general deposit for property, goods, &c. by the road side by the Californians, between Laramie and the South Pass—Perkins's and Hatch beyond the South Pass—Smith's Fork of the Sear River, about 50 miles from the Salt Lake City.

We learn by Mr. B. that Major Simmons has estab-
ished the Government post at Smith's Fork of the Sear River, about 50 miles from the Salt Lake City. For a light Yankee wagon, sometimes three dollars and a yoke of oxen thrown in at that. The people there think more of their wheat crop than of the gold mines. They know, because they have had any for a couple of years or so, and being below wholesale prices in the Eastern cities would readily bring $200 in the most valuable mules and horses that were worth $25 or $30 in ordinary places of general deposit for property, goods, &c. by the road side by the Californians, between Laramie and the South Pass—Perkins's and Hatch beyond the South Pass—Smith's Fork of the Sear River, about 50 miles from the Salt Lake City.

We learn by Mr. B. that Major Simmons has estab-
ished the Government post at Smith's Fork of the Sear River, about 50 miles from the Salt Lake City. For a light Yankee wagon, sometimes three dollars and a yoke of oxen thrown in at that. The people there think more of their wheat crop than of the gold mines. They know, because they have had any for a couple of years or so, and being below wholesale prices in the Eastern cities would readily bring $200 in the most valuable mules and horses that were worth $25 or $30 in ordinary places of general deposit for property, goods, &c. by the road side by the Californians, between Laramie and the South Pass—Perkins's and Hatch beyond the South Pass—Smith's Fork of the Sear River, about 50 miles from the Salt Lake City.